YOUR CRUISE

In partnership with RADIO CLASSIQUE.

Ponant invites you to experience a timeless voyage set to music, along the most stunning shores of Northern Europe, between France and Norway.

From Honfleur to Bergen, you will sail aboard Le Boréal for a 7-day cruise run in partnership with Radio Classique. You will be joined on board by exceptional pianists such as Alain Duault, a true ambassador of classical music.

As we leave the Norman coast, we will head north to Belgium and Ostende. Among other scenery, you will be able to admire its sea front and the sumptuous Belle Epoque-style façades which bear witness to the town's rich past as a seaside resort.

The next day, you will discover Amsterdam. From its languorous canals to its world-famous museums, Amsterdam is a city full of contrasts, brimming with unusual places to discover as you amble through the streets.

Your cruise will continue to Norway, where you will make three stops to discover this fascinating country. You will have the privilege of sailing in the famous "Lysefjord" (light fjord), flanked by granite cliffs.

Bergen, which is known for its tall mountains that overlook the city, will be the last port of call on this cruise to Northern Europe.
